

The District of Columbia
Patients' Cooperative presents,

TOWN HALL MEETING on the Implementation of the District of Columbia's Medical Cannabis Program

At 7pm on Thursday February 10th in Pierce Hall at All Souls Unitarian Church (1500 Harvard St. NW), the District of Columbia Patients' Cooperative is hosting a town hall meeting on the implementation of the medical cannabis program in the District of Columbia. The aim of the meeting is to provide residents with a better understanding of the law & regulations that were drafted over the last year. The forum will cover topics ranging from how the patient registration process will work to the rules surrounding the cultivation and dispensing of the medicine. We hope you can attend.

Entry is free, but space will be limited, so we request that you RSVP on our website:
