

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Public Information Office: 202-727-4383

the Chief of Police and executive staff with additional visibility and insight into MPD's patrol activities and services.

- Assistant Chief Wilfredo Manlapaz, Internal Affairs Bureau – Assistant Chief Manlapaz served as the Fourth District Commander for almost four years and will now head up the Internal Affairs Bureau (IAB). IAB acts as the guardian of the Metropolitan Police Department's reputation and is charged with the accountability, implementation, and maintenance of the Department's anti-corruption programs.
- Commander Randy Griffin, Fourth District – Commander Griffin was previously assigned to the Third District as a Captain and will now serve as the Fourth District Commander. The Fourth District operates within Patrol Services North (PSN) and covers the upper Northwest and Northeast quadrants of the city. With the PSA restructuring that took effect in 2012, the Fourth District now has nine Police Service Areas (or PSAs).
- Commander John Haines, Narcotics and Special Investigations Division – Commander Haines was assigned as a Captain to the Seventh District and has been promoted to the Narcotics and Special Investigations Division (NSID). NSID provides proactive criminal enforcement services so that citizens can live in safe neighborhoods by removing illegal firearms, confiscating narcotics, and combating human trafficking.
- Commander Andre Wright, Youth and Family Services Division – Commander Wright has been promoted from Captain of the Criminal Investigations Division to Commander of Youth and Family Services Division (YFSD). YFSD is responsible for investigating child abuse and neglect, child sexual abuse and exploitation (including child pornography and prostitution), juvenile missing persons and parental kidnapping, and persons in need of supervision.

###

CONNECT WITH US